Montana

Unspoiled, unforgettable.

Montana is a big state with dramatically different landscapes and physical features. For your convenience, we have divided the state into six vacation regions, each with attractions and scenic values that live up to its name.

Charlie Russell Country is the land memorialized by this famed western artist—cowboys and Plains Indians, buffalo, buttes, dramatic skies and the grand Missouri River. This is where the mountains meet the plains. Phone: 1-800-527-5348 or 406-761-5036.

Custer Country is the site of the most famous Indian battle in U.S. history. Here, Lt. Col. George Custer lost his life in 1876 against an underestimated force of Sioux and Cheyenne warriors. Here, too, are vast cattle ranches, great rivers, and Montana's largest city. Phone: 406-665-1671.

Glacier Country is Montana's northwest corner, where lofty mountains set the pace. Here is magnificent Glacier National Park, watchable wildlife, wild rivers, scenic golf courses, wilderness and lakes scattered like jewels. Phone: 1-800-338-5072 or 406-756-7128.

Gold West Country is Montana's southwest corner, where the West's colorful history comes to life in restored mining camps, mansions and union halls. Here, too, are fabled mountains, blue-ribbon trout streams and Montana's capital city. Phone: 406-846-1943.

Missouri River Country is Montana's northeast corner, where a great river sets the theme for a vast landscape of prairies, lakes, wildlife and waterfowl refuges. Here, everything is big, with ranches measured in miles. Phone: 406-525-3410.

Yellowstone Country is Montana's gateway to Yellowstone National Park. Its legendary rivers, majestic peaks, vast forests and wilderness areas make it headquarters for some of the world's finest trout fishing and outdoor recreation. Phone: 1-800-736-5276 or 406-446-1005.

Montana's motels and hotels are listed alphabetically by town. All local telephone numbers are reached by the 406 area code, and 800 numbers are listed where applicable. Here you will also find listings for accommodations in Montana's national parks, Glacier and Yellowstone. Look for them under the name of the park. In addition, towns which are adjacent to the parks are listed immediately following each park. In the Glacier National Park area, look for East Glacier Park (southeast entrance), St. Mary (east), Babb (northeast), Polebridge and West Glacier (west). In the Yellowstone National Park area, look for Cooke City and Silver Gate (northeast entrance), Gardiner (north) and West Yellowstone (west).

BOZEMAN

The Yellowstone Connection

No amusement park rides, no lines or crowds or traffic jams. We don't put on our Sweet Pea Festival, Taste of Bozeman or Christmas Stroll just to bag a few tourists. We do it for fun. Be our guest when you're in the mood to feel good.

Bozeman is a wonderful place to do nothing. Or everything. Call us for more information at

Bed & Breakfast Inns

Room rates are based on double occupancy for the 1991 summer season, and are subject to change.

$ = Under $35
 $$ = Between $35 and $50
 $$$ = Over $50

Breakfast: C = Continental
 F = Full
 N = None available

Typically found in a private home, inn or ranch, Montana's Bed & Breakfast accommodations offer privacy, a high level of personal attention and service and homemade breakfasts. Depending on the size of the B&B, the number of guest rooms can vary from 1-5 in a private home upwards to 20 rooms in an inn. It is not uncommon for the host/hostess to help their guests plan a day of touring or arrange for a wide range of activities, such as hiking, fishing, boating, llama picnics, etc. Most B&B's will send upon request a detailed brochure outlining their amenities. Listings are arranged alphabetically by town. All local telephone numbers are reached by the 406 area code.

Ranches & Resorts Hostels & Hot Springs

Montana's guest ranches and resorts offer destination vacations with a special flair. Each offers a unique blend of western hospitality and activities. No two are alike. The only constant is a spectacular setting—towering Rocky Mountains, timbered valleys, spacious prairies and pristine lakes, rivers and streams. You'll be far from worldly worries and right up close to horses, wild trout, watchable wildlife, chuckwagon barbecues, soothing hot springs, golf, tennis and so much more.

The listings below are arranged according to Montana's vacation regions. Reservations are almost always required at these guest ranches and resorts, so be sure to call or write in advance. All local telephone numbers are reached by the 406 area code. Ranches that belong to the national Dude Ranchers' Association are indicated by "DRA" immediately following the ranch name.

TRAVEL MONTANA

Licensed Outfitters

Guided Hunting, Hiking, Fishing & Float Trips

Some of Montana's best vacations are off the beaten path...in wilderness camps, on remote whitewater rivers, in range after range of rugged Rocky Mountains. Let an outfitter show you the time of your life on a Montana Adventure Vacation.

The accompanying map shows the administrative regions of the state, designated by Montana's Board of Outfitters.

Licensed outfitter services are listed by region, alphabetically by town within each region. All telephone numbers are reached by the 406 area code unless specified otherwise.

For more information about nonresident hunting and fishing licenses and season dates, write or call the Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife & Parks, 1420 East Sixth, Helena, MT 59620, (406) 444-2535.

Fly-fishing Float & Wade Trips

Join me in my tenth year of guiding fly-fishermen on the Madison, Gallatin and Yellowstone rivers. I offer the beginner and expert alike, the best guide services in the area. Float one of the big rivers from a McKenzie drift boat or walk/wade one of the spring creeks or smaller mountain streams. Daily and package trips available.

Box 5031 - Bozeman, MT 59715 - (406)587-5923

11-12 Hwy. 287, North • Cameron, MT 59720 • (406) 682-7690
Montana's finest guest ranch, centrally located to fish the West's legendary rivers.
Deluxe lodge and elegant cabins newly constructed of native log and stone.

- Pack trips into the Lee Metcalf Wilderness or Yellowstone Park.
- Guided float trips on the Madison or the Henry's Fork river.
- Walk/wade the Gallatin, the Firehole, plus many virtually unknown, productive waters of the Yellowstone region.

A great place in a great setting to fish, ride and relax.

Public campgrounds are arranged alphabetically within each vacation region. The campgrounds listed here are primitive in comparison with the private campgrounds listed on pages 55-63. Generally, they offer parking spaces, toilets and various recreational opportunities, including fishing, boating, hiking and swimming. All can be reached by car. After selecting a campground on the regional map, go to the narrative listing for more detailed information about the campground. The regional maps are for general reference only. Use the location descriptions and the Montana Highway Map to find these campgrounds. Telephone numbers for the state and federal agencies that manage Montana's public campgrounds are listed on page 79.

Consult the Local Experts

For detailed information about attractions, facilities and services consult these local chambers of commerce.

When traveling in Montana, look for the SUPERHOST logo. Communities displaying this sign support staffed visitor information centers, provide a wide variety of local and statewide tourism information and sponsor on-going hospitality training for employees in businesses that serve visitors. Montana's SUPERHOST communities will help make your trip to Montana an even more memorable one. They are shown in deep red color.
